

UNM

SCHOOL of PUBLIC
ADMINISTRATION

SPEAKER SERIES

2016-2017

Levels of Inequality in Municipal Policing

What is the relationship between municipal public safety budgets and socioeconomic conditions? How does this effect both the municipality's ability to provide public safety services and the public's experience of safety? What role do social inequalities play in municipalities' decisions regarding policy and allocation of resources to policing?

Speaker: Agustín León-Moreta, Ph.D.

Friday, April 21, 2017 | Noon to 1:00 pm

UNM Main Campus | Dane Smith Hall | Room 132

Email spadvise@unm.edu by 4/20 to attend online.

The School of Public Administration (SPA) Speaker Series provides a forum for informed discussion and debate of central challenges facing communities today.

SPA is pleased to sponsor this talk in partnership with PAGSA and KUNM Generation Listen. For more information, please visit: www.spa.unm.edu/events/speaker-series/html.