Maggie Hart Stebbins has represented District 3 on the Bernalillo County Board of Commissioners since 2009. She came to the commission with extensive experience in public service, including working for the U.S. Congress, the New Mexico House of Representatives, and the Mid-Region Council of Governments.

A resident of her UNM-area neighborhood since 1966, she attended Montezuma Elementary, Our Lady of Fatima, the Albuquerque Academy and Harvard University, where she was an All-American athlete and recipient of the prestigious Radcliffe Alumni Association Award for athletic excellence and leadership.

She has focused on creating and preserving jobs in Bernalillo County, overhauling the county’s outdated ethics ordinance and enhancing “BernCo View”, an on-line transparency portal. She is a member of the Bernalillo County Healthcare Taskforce, which is working on identifying behavioral healthcare gaps, needs, and priorities in central New Mexico.

Commissioner Hart Stebbins has served on numerous boards and is active in many community organizations, including the New Mexico Children’s Foundation, the New Mexico Mutual Group Board of Directors, Albuquerque’s Open Space and Biopark Advisory Boards, the Bernalillo County Metropolitan Court Judicial Selection Commission, and the YWCA.

She has been happily married to Eric Stebbins for more than 20 years and they are raising their four children in District 3.
WELCOME BACK, LOBOS!

The GRC is OPEN this week Monday – Friday 8-5pm.

Writing Camps
Want to kick start/renew/revive/continue your thesis/dissertation writing by joining in a week or weekend of writing with fellow graduate students? The Writing Camps are an opportunity for graduate students to join other graduate/professional students to work on their theses, dissertations, or other writing projects in a quiet and appropriately equipped space. We also support our participants by having graduate consultants available on site who can provide writing guidance.

We will host our next week-long Writing Camp from October 5-9 from 8:30am to 4:30pm. For more information, future Writing Camp dates, and to sign up click here!

About Roadrunner Food Bank
The vision of Roadrunner Food Bank is to permanently end hunger in New Mexico. To accomplish this vision, our mission is to feed every hungry person today, seed partnerships that build self-sufficiency for tomorrow, and lead to achieve our vision. Roadrunner feeds 70,000 New Mexicans a week and provides food through a network of partnership agencies and volunteers.

About the Internship
The Nonprofit Marketing Analytics Internship provides an opportunity to experience real-world marketing analysis in a nonprofit setting. Interns will work in the Development (Fundraising) Department to gain a better understanding of how donations are processed and how the data is interpreted using patterns and trends. On a weekly basis, interns will spend time processing donations and then interpreting patterns and trends across those donations. Data interpretation will be directly used by the Development Department to inform Development efforts. At the conclusion of the internship, interns will present a final, comprehensive analysis of their work to the Development Department staff. Interns will work under the direction and guidance of Roadrunner’s lead Marketing Analyst.

Experience you will gain
During the span of the internship, interns will learn and engage in the following activities:
• An understanding of day to day marketing trends across philanthropic channels
• Assist with the processing of donations to better understand the Constituent Relationship Management Database
• A comprehensive view of the Development Department best practices at one of New Mexico’s largest nonprofits
• Interacting with a Constituent Relations Management Database to understand how donations are recorded and categorized
• Learning real-world statistical and analytical tools in Microsoft Excel
• Gain an understanding of the operations at New Mexico’s largest food bank
• Networking and learning from skilled professionals in the nonprofit field

Qualifications
• Must be at least 20 years old
• Attention to detail and well-organized
• Proficient in Microsoft Office
• Knowledge of statistical operations a plus
• Willingness and aptitude for learning
• Must have a favorable criminal background check
• Must have transportation to and from the office
• Hours: 12+/week
• Hours are flexible and depend on the intern’s class schedule and/or course requirements (if applicable), and schedule. Roadrunner’s hours of business are 8am-4pm
• Unpaid Internship

All applicants must submit a resume and cover letter to shannon.adragna@rrfb.org
Good morning Graduate & Professional Students:

For Fall 2015 term, The Graduate Studies Office is presenting Thesis/Dissertation Manuscript workshops for graduate students who are interested in information that will help them understand the basic procedure to format their manuscript and meet the final degree requirement to submit electronically a thesis or dissertation to the LoboVault repository. The Graduate Studies Degree Requirement Deadline for Fall 2015 term is November 15, 2015, Sunday, 5:00 p.m. for graduate students to graduate for Fall 2015 term. Since November 15, 2015 is on a Sunday, the next business day, Monday, November 16, 5:00pm is the degree requirement deadline for all graduate students to have all documents and electronic thesis/dissertations submissions to Lobovault repository should be completed.

Please refer to the NEW Manuscript Tutorial Module 1/Module 2/Module 3 which is at the Graduate Studies Website:

http://ogs.unm.edu/degree-completion/manuscript-prep.html

This tool will help you become familiar with the Front Matter formatting and the procedures to submit electronically the thesis/dissertation manuscript to the UNM-LoboVault repository. For Thesis/Dissertation Manuscript Website page:

http://grad.unm.edu/degree-completion/thesis-dissertations/index.html

These are the following scheduled workshops:

- 3rd Workshop: October 14, 2015, Wednesday, 10:00 A.M.-12:00 Noon, Student Union, Lobo Room A & B, Third Floor
- 4th Workshop: October 29, 2015, Thursday, 10:00 A.M.-12:00 Noon, Student Union, Lobo Room A & B, Third Floor

This workshop will prepare the graduate student to format a thesis or dissertation manuscript by understanding the elements of the Front Matter and incorporating the Body of the Research into a one electronic PDF file. Also, instructions for the additional forms will be discussed, which are necessary for the final electronic submission process with the Graduate Studies Office.

No registration is necessary.

If the workshop is full, walk-in participants will be accommodated as space allows.
